

THE TEAM AROUND THE WOMAN

Thursday 26 July 2018, 9:00 -16:00

Main Lecture Theatre, John Henry Brookes Building, Headington Campus,
Oxford Brookes University, OX3 0BP

Join us at the Oxford Brookes Midwifery students' annual conference, where we will explore the experiences of, and support available to, the team around the woman during pregnancy and childbirth. The conference will be opened by Professor Lesley Page CBE, followed by guest speakers discussing:

- who makes up a birthing team, and how can they best be supported?
- first-hand experiences of women and their partners
- your impact as a team member
- how to get support

Masters' students' research and BSc projects will also be showcased, and the Sheila Kitzenger Award for Outstanding Midwifery Student will be presented.

SPEAKERS INCLUDE

Ellie Durant (www.midwifediaries.com) - midwife, midwifery writer, blogger, support giver and anti-bullying campaigner

Jess Clasby-Monk (www.thelegacyofleo.com) - blogger supporting parents experiencing pregnancy loss and pregnancy after loss

Professor Valerie Worth - Senior Tutor, Trinity College Oxford, and researcher of 'Birth through History'

Simon Hooper - @father_of_daughters - father, instagrammer and writer

Baby Birth Balance - doulas and childbirth educators

In support of PANDAS - Pre and Post Natal Depression Advice and Support. Fundraising activities on the day will include a cake stall and raffle.

BOOKINGS

bit.ly/2lofXiz

Please book early to avoid disappointment.

MORE INFORMATION

Louise Hunter
lhunter@brookes.ac.uk

Tel.: 01865 482689

brookes.ac.uk/mcph/

FREE for Brookes students

Other students: £10
Others: £20

Coffee and tea provided; please bring your own lunch.